

How to Change a Final Parenting Plan When Parties Agree

Use these instructions ONLY if you have a final parenting plan in place and:

- You want to change your parenting plan and if needed,
- You want a new child support order because of the changes to your old parenting plan.

Do not use these instructions if you only want to change child support. Ask the facilitator for information on how to change child support.

Talk to a lawyer, if you can

These instructions have been developed by the King County Superior Court Family Law Information Center. They are not intended to be a substitute for legal advice. They provide only legal information. It's a good idea to talk to a lawyer before you file any forms. If you cannot afford a lawyer, you can:

- Find a lawyer to help you with the most difficult parts of your case, such as reviewing your forms, explaining how to get ready for court and confirming this is the best legal action for your case. You can contact the King County Bar Association to ask for a referral.
- Ask the Family Law Facilitator's office for a list of low-cost and free legal resources.
